Job Postings - When a position becomes available, it is the general practice of the Station to internally post the job opportunity for all station personnel so they may apply for consideration for these positions. The notices list the titles and requirements for the positions. These job opportunity/postings are also sent to various community outreach groups, schools, and universities as well as other FOX Owned & Operated Stations across the country. In addition, station openings are sent to www.atvu.com or www.ktvu.com or <a href="https://www

* Asterisk notes recruitment sources that requested job notification announcements.

In addition to the above recruitment source information, employment opportunities are sent to the Human Resources contact for each owned and operated Fox Television Station nationwide in an effort to increase the opportunity for company internal promotions and expand the recruiting area.

We also interviewed 16 candidates from an outside talent agency (Eatman), Linked In, Entertainment Careers, and various Job Boards.

Section 3: Supplemental Outreach Activities

KTVU/KICU regularly participates in national career/job fairs. Job Fairs provide applicants and potential candidates with the opportunity to learn about Fox Television Stations and the job opportunities and internship/mentoring programs available with our group. During this reporting period KTVU/KICU participated in the following national job fairs: 8/1-8/3/18: The National Association of Black Journalists Convention & Job Fair in Detroit, MI was attended by FTS O&O Group Regional Human Resources Director, Iris Sierra, WJBK Human Resources Director, Cynthia Smith, WJBH News Director, Kevin Roseborough and WFLD News Director, Matt Piacente. 8/8-8/11/18: The Asian American Journalists Association Convention & Job Fair in Houston, TX was attended by KMSP/WFTC Human Resources Director, Kate O'Hara, WJZY Human Resources Director, Karen Bouldin and KRIV News Director, Susan Schiller. 9/27-9/28/18: The Excellence in Journalism Conference in Baltimore, MD was attended by WNYW/WWOR Human Resources Director, Roselyn Barranda, WFLD/WPWR Human Resources Director, Sharming Scott-Nathan and WTTG/WDCA News Director, Paul McGonagle. 2/28/19: The Howard University Career Fair in Washington DC was attended by WTTG Executive Producer, April Williams, the FTS O&O Group Human Resources Director, Heather Frascella and the FOX Station Sales Human Resources Director, Bonnie Yuen. 7/10/19: The Emma Bowen Career Fair in New York was attended by WNYW/WWOR Human Resources Director, Roselyn Barranda and Fox Station Sales Human Resources Director, Bonnie Yuen.

Internship Program: KTVU/KICU has an internship program that provides opportunities for individuals enrolled in colleges and universities to receive academic credit for internships at KTVU/KICU. The program is structured to give students the opportunity to receive instructions and training from broadcasting professionals in an authentic work situation. The interns have the opportunity to participate in daily operations of various departments and develop skills that will be useful in their job search following graduation. The students work approximately 16 – 24 hours per week and receive college credit upon successful completion of their internship. Generally, internships are available in News and Community Affairs. During the reporting period, the Stations' Human Resources Manager, Chris Nohr and Program Administrator, Lisa Yokota, provided internships for 14 students. One of these interns was later hired as a Part Time Assignment Desk Editor during the reporting cycle.

Employee Enrichment/Training: KTVU/KICU conducts employee training throughout the reporting cycle to increase current skills and enable the staff to be more effective in their positions. This training included: Hazardous materials business plan, hazardous waste handling and spill prevention control and countermeasure from Environmental Management Consultants for Maintenance Engineers, Video Switcher training by Grass Valley Inc for all Maintenance Engineers, Unreal dimensions in Design and VR and how to make music work in promos for an Executive Promo Producer at Promax, how to hire the best candidate by a Creative Services Director at Promax, Writing, Researching and Photography at Investigative Journalism Conference for Investigative reporters and a photographer, Ignite director training for newscast directors, Dataminr (digital content aggregator) training for Assignment Desk Editors and News Producers.

"Career Awareness"/Station Tours: Throughout the reporting period, KTVU/KICU conducts station tours for various groups to explain television broadcast operations and careers. A total of 28 tours were conducted during this reporting period with a total of over 272 outside participants. Attendees included elementary and middle school students and teachers from Hip Wah Chinese Culture School in Oakland, a group from Leadership San Leandro, a group from Leadership Oakland, a group from the City of Piedmont, college interns from the Port of Oakland internship program, meteorologists from the U.S. Weather Service, high school students from Antioch High School Media Tech Academy, elementary students from St. Joseph's in Alameda, students from Matthew Turner Elementary and Benicia Middle school. In addition, some individual students were given tours and informational interviews for school projects.

"Career Awareness"/Student & Community Outreach Program: Throughout the reporting period, KTVU/KICU participated in student and community outreach programs to various elementary/middle and high schools; colleges and community groups to promote broadcast objectives and broadcasting career opportunities. KTVU/KICU participated in events held at local schools/colleges/community group events and 19 employees presented information about the television industry and career opportunities in broadcasting. A few of the major events participated in by KTVU were the Oakland Athletics Weather Education Day at the Oakland Coliseum to approximately 2500 middle and high school students from all over the SF/Oakland Bay Area, Kids' Country Summer camp in San Ramon presentation on how to make a newscast for elementary school students, review and critique of college students' work at the Graduate School of Journalism at University of California in Berkeley, San Francisco State University presentation to Broadcast and Electronic Communications Arts college students, Liberty High School in Brentwood presentation about TV news to a high school journalism class, Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office media panel presentation, emcee for Fremont Education Association Fundraising Gala, presentation about media careers to Vietnamese Association of Professional Women's Scholarship event and keynote speaker at the American Indian Model School promotion ceremony.

WWW.KTVU.COM and WWW.KICU.COM serve the community by providing Californians with the latest news, weather, and traffic information including breaking news, severe weather alerts and traffic jams. Through this vital and active tool, news and information is widely disseminated. Station information available on our websites includes: internship program, employment opportunities and the Annual EEO Public File Report. In addition, the website also has direct links to many national sites. Our websites attract approximately 4.1 million page views and over 1.3 million unique visitors per month.

Community Board participation: KTVU/KICU participates, with other community leaders, on the following community boards: A KTVU employee is President of the local chapter of NATAS (National Association of Television Arts and Sciences). As President this employee worked with NATAS during the reporting period to rework the NATAS Mentor Match Program connecting members in smaller TV markets with members at stations in larger markets. This employee is also on the National NATAS Education Scholarship Committee. A KTVU employee is on the Advisory Committee for Youth Beat Radio, a Peabody award winning non-profit media production company and teaching institute that prepares diverse young people for the 21st century digital workplace. TVHO HR President, Jean Fuentes, is on the Board for the Emma Bowen Foundation.
